

Sixth form dress code

You are not required to wear school uniform, as lower school do

We do expect:

- Clothing should be clean and meet a standard of decency
- You may need smart dress at times, such as attending events, interviews or student leadership events. You will be told about this in advance

What can I wear from September?

Clean, unripped jeans of any colour

Tracksuit bottoms

Trainers or closed toe shoes of any colour and style

Hoodies that have no logo/ a small logo

T shirts that have no logo/ a small logo

Leggings covered by a long top which reaches no more than 1 inch above the knee

Shorts or skirts which are no more than 1 inch above the knee

Shirts and trousers / skirt

Tidy hair

What can't I wear?

No revealing clothing, such as revealing tops

No thin straps/crop tops/low cut/off the shoulder/backless/strapless.

No midriff or shoulders whatsoever on show.

No ripped jeans

No short skirts/dresses/shorts (more than 1 inch above the knee)

No offensive slogans/graphic images or dangerous accessories

No leggings unless they are under a long top/dress that comes to at least 1 inch above the knee

No tight tracksuit bottoms or Lycra outside of PE lessons or exercise in the gym

No sliders/flip flops/backless shoes

In the corridors

- No earphones at all
- Not on phones
- Lanyard at all times

- In your locker:
- Have a jumper, cardigan or hoodie that you can put on, if you are unsure whether your top is acceptable

What happens if I get it wrong?

- The first time:
 - You will be sent to the sixth form office immediately
 - You will change into something in school
 - OR You will go home and change, and return to school, home will be contacted
- The second time:
 - As above but you will make up the missed working time after school that week, home will be contacted
- Beyond that:
 - A parental meeting